Lake Placid High School

I. The meeting was called to order by Royal Palm Beach High School at 7:32 P.M.

II. The Lake Placid ROTC brought in the American flag. A student from Lake Placid sang the National Anthem and then led the district in the pledge.

III. Roll was called by Spanish River. Twenty schools were present.

III. Spanish River read the minutes from the December 1st Meeting at Palm Beach Central.

IV. Lake Placid announced a working balance of $2885.61. They were super excited to host the District Rally and announced that if anyone had any trouble to find a student in a lime green shirt tonight, or a yellow shirt tomorrow. They stressed that they want everyone to get outside of the comfort zone, get involved, and have fun, ending with an introduction of their Vice Principal, Ms. James.

V. Ms. James began by introducing two officers that would be keeping the entire delegation safe this weekend while we are having so much fun. She joked trying to find out who had parked in her designated Vice Principal spot. She was very happy to see us all and reported that their principal is at the school's baseball game but will be here later. Ms. James was very proud of the hard work of both the Student Government members and Dr. Song. The district clapped for Dr. Sohn. She wished that we all learn a lot, meet new people, have great leadership experiences and have fun. She is here if we need anything. Who parked in her spot?

VI. Lake Placid introduced the Palladium Country Cloggers. They performed, with technical difficulties before their last song causing a small delay. They then asked for any volunteers. The stage was then filled with District V cloggers.

VII. Lake Placid introduced a hypnotist, Patrick Grady. Patrick explained the hypnotic process and then called up volunteers to be hypnotized.

VIII. Park Vista read the proposed amendment.

VIII. Park Vista introduced the candidates who then gave their candidate speeches.

IX. Lake Placid began the talent show.

X. Lake Placid and Royal Palm Beach made announcements: midnight curfew, pizza will be delivered to the rooms; there is a sheriff on duty for emergencies; no boys are allowed in girls rooms; the first general session will begin a 8:45 the next morning.

XI. The meeting was adjourned by Royal Palm Beach at 10:55 P.M.
